Professional Summary

Anastasia Romanov II (aka Anna)

Chief Purr-sonnel Officer

As VenueVation's Chief Purr-sonnel Officer, Anna keeps the team purring along with expert emotional support, strategic lap warming, and perfectly timed zoomies to break up endless meetings. As deadlines near, her regal head boops and therapeutic purrs remind everyone that the best business decisions sometimes start with a solid nap. Thanks to our feline catalyst, VenueVation runs purr-fectly — because every great team needs a little cat-itude and a lot of cuddles.

Regal 6-year-old Russian Blue mix with luxurious silver-gray fur, hypnotic emerald eyes, and a distinguished white chest patch (clearly a royal cravat). Direct descendant of the imperial bloodline — or at least that's what she tells everyone. Expert in strategic napping on thrones (aka cardboard boxes), gravitational testing of fragile objects, and emotional support through aggressive imperial cuddling.

Professional Experience

Chief Purr-sonnel Officer
